Story:

The great land of bhaarat (India), which is referred in all the dharma literatures, puraaNaas and itihaasaas (history), was full of greenery, beautiful landscapes, with all rivers giving fresh water, fertile land, eco-balance. In there, sage soota, who is an ancient historian, used to teach several shaastraas to other sages like Sounaka.

Dharmaraaja, who is born in the chandra dynasty, lost all his kingdom, wealth and power to kauravaas by loosing the gambling game. In the forests, during exile, he, along with his brothers and wife, visited several sages. He also visits sage soota and says "O great soul! We lost all our kingdom and wealth. We are pleased by your darshan now. Please prescribe any vrata with which we can get back all that we lost."

Sage Soota replied, "There is a vrata which removes all sins and gives all wealth. Bhagavaan Shiva first described this to kumara swami." Sage soota continues to tell the vrata story details.

Shiva tells kumara swami "Vinaayaka vrata gives health and wealth. That needs to be done on the fourth day of shukla paksha of the Bhaadrapada month. Finish all ablutions early in the morning, and with whatever one can afford (Gold, silver or clay), make an idol of Lord Ganesha. Install Him in the northern area of your home, on a dias well decorated with flowers, rice and rangoli. Do all the pooja activities like dhoopa, diipa, niiraajana, naivedya.... offerings. Meet friends and family and have lunch and dinner with them. Whoever does it this way, is always happy and meets all his wishes. This is one of the great vrataas, which is performed by several great people like Shri Krishna, Shri Rama, Bhagiratha and Indra.

Soota tells dharmaraja "So, dharmaraja! You also do this ganesh pooja. You can win over your enemies and get back all the wealth.

Earlier, Shri Krishna also performed this vrata and obtained jaambavati along with shamantakamani. King satraajit obtained shamantakamani, a bright shining gem, as a gift from Lord soorya. Shri Krishna liked it and asked Satraajit for it. He denied giving it. Satraaiit's brother wore that shamantakamani and went for hunting. A lion killed him and was running away with the gem. Jaambavanta, a bear-king, killed that lion, and took the shamantakamani with him to his cave. Satraajit accuses Shri Krishna that he killed his brother and stole shamantakamani.

Shri Krishna realizes and tells balaraama, that this is because he had to violate the ganesh chaturthi shaapa, not to see moon that night. He happened to see the reflection of moon in the cup of milk that he was having that night. Balaraama asks Krishna to tell the details of the shaapa.

Krishna tells "On this chaturhti day, vinaayaka had a heavy meal of all the sweets and dishes that he likes most. With a heavy, large stomach when he was walking, chandra looks at him and mocks. Indignified, vinayaka gives shapa to the moon, that whoever sees moon on this day, shall be falsely accused. Chandra realizes his mistake and begs pardon of Ganapti. He then tells that, as told by Shiva to kumara swami, if one does ganesh pooja on this 4th day of bhadrapada maasa, they will not face these blames. So, then onwards several people, including chandra did Ganesh pooja."

Then, Shri Krishna and balarama do Ganesh Pooja, had prasadam, and go to jaambavanta. Jaambavanta gladly gives back shamantakamani and offers jaambavati in marriage to Shri Krishna.

Upon return, Shri Krishna goes to satraajit and gives back his shamantakamani. Satraajit feels sorry, and happily offers his daughter satyabhaama in marriage to him."

Soota continues saying the story that "indra, in order to kill vruttaasrua, shri Rama, when searching for Sita, bhagiratha, when bringing ganga to earth performed this vrata."

Dharmaraja also performs this vrata and gets back all that he lost and lives happily.

By doing this vrata, since everybody is able to fulfill (siddhi) his wishes, vinayaka has become popularly known as "siddhi vinayaka."

So, all people can do this vrata and may live happily forever.

23) After reciting the following shaanti mantra, clean-up your pooja place.

sarve bhavantu sukhinaH. sarve santu niraamayaaH.. sarve bhadraaNi paSyantu. maa kashchid duHkha bhaag bhavet ..

सर्वे भवन्तु सुखिनः। सर्वे सन्तु निरामयाः॥

सर्वे भद्राणि पश्यन्तु । मा कश्चिदु दुःखभाग् भवेत् ॥

Let all live happily. Let all live without misery. Let all see, hear and perceive only good things. Let no one ever be sad.

OM shaantiH shaantiH	🕉 शान्तिः शान्तिः शान्तिः शान्तिः ॥

The above picture depicts Lord Rama going to Vanavas.

Currently the State of California is considering new text books for adoption for Social Studies classes in Elementary and Middle schools, which contain substantial materials on Hinduism and India. HEF found major distortions, misrepresentations, and factual errors in these books. They seem to originate in the framework that the Board of Education of California provides to the School Boards. It insists that the history of India must begin with the Aryan invasion of India with subsequent implications that Hinduism only goes back to 1200 BCE. Some textbooks include indecent remarks on Hindu Gods and Goddesses. Others casually remark on the unjust and inegalitarian caste system and the custom of sati. Needless to say many references are taken out of context. For full details please visit http://www.hindueducation.org/misrepresentation.htm.

For last few months the California Team of HEF has engaged in the process of correcting misrepresentations in the advanced copies of the proposed textbooks that various publishers have submitted to the Board of Education. Toward that objective HEF engaged a team of academicians and experts which include Dr. Shrinivas Tilak, Dr. David Frawley, Linda Johnsen, Prof. Subash Kak, Prof. Sridhar Melkote, Mrs Beth Kulkarni, and Shri Kartik Venkatramani

But the changes we seek cannot be accomplished without the active support and cooperation of the larger Indian community.
